CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, MARCH 4-5, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE SHERIDAN STAKES.

The pre-eminence of the American Derby as the most famous fixture for three-year-olds of the American turf has caused it to be so often "written up" that people interested in racing are generally familiar with its history. There are, however, other Washington Park events that in the course of their history since 1884 have afforded grand contests in which many horses noted for speed, endurance and ability to carry high weights have participated. The Sheridan, for instance, has annually produced a race but little, if in any way, inferior in interest to the American Derby, and frequently has the winner of the latter great race been forced to submit to defeat in the former.

When the Washington Park Club was organized General Philip H. Sheridan accepted its presidency. Secretary Brewster named the race designed as the supplement to the American Derby in his honor. This excellent device was afterward followed up by naming the chief handicap event given by the club after its second president, George Henry Wheeler. No doubt in time a stake will preserve the memory of the dead secretary, John E. Brewster, and this graceful and appropriate course of action will also lead to the institution of the Howard Stakes and the Hamill Stakes.

The first Sheridan Stakes was decided on the 4th of July, 1884 and it has been the feature of that day at Washington Park ever since. Modesty had beaten Kosciuszko a scant head for the Derby so Kosciuszko was a strong favorite for the first Sheridan, selling in auction pools for $150 against $225 for the field composed of Bob Miles, General Harding, Billy Gilmore, Loftin, Richard L. and Bob Cook. Kosciuszko confirmed the merit of his Derby running by winning easily by two lengths with Bob Miles second and General Harding third. The track was good but not fast and the time for the mile and a quarter was 2:12, the net value of the stake being $5,070. The contestants this year, while in the main good, sturdy racers, were by no means of the highest class.

The situation was different in 1885. It was a year of cracking good three-year-olds and the Sheridan brought out a field that included such stars as Volante and Troubadour. Volante had won the Derby over a heavy track and was naturally the favorite, but Alf Estell, a big chestnut colt, by Norfolk-Lady Jane, was a great "tip" and heavily backed. An average pool was Volante, $200; Alf Estell, $155; Gold Ban, $80; Alta, $60, and the field $50. The starters were Volante, 125; Troubadour, 123; Alta, 118; Alf Estell, 118; Falconer, 118; Gold Ban, 113, and Volo III. Gold Ban and Alf Estell set the pace around to the three-quarters, where Volante and Alta passed them, and at the end of a fine and exciting struggle down the stretch Alta drew out and won by a length, with Volante second, two lengths in front of Troubadour. Alta was by Norfolk-Ballinette, and a good race horse, then the property of R. Porter Ashe, now a prominent lawyer in San Francisco. The Californians who had wasted their money on Alf Estell were greatly discomfited because of having failed to select the right Norfolk. The time was 2:09 and the net value $3,950.

In 1888 rather a meager field of five started for the Sheridan, Ed Corrigan winning by a length, with Pure Rye second, Silver Cloud third and Jim Gray and Kaloolah unplaced. Time, 2:09, value $3,740. Silver Cloud had won the American Derby of that year, defeating better horses through the cunning and good jockeyship of Isaac Murphy. The next year the race fell to the afterwards famous Terra Cotta, long the pride of the Hankins & Johnson, string and the admitted best handicap horse of the west. Miss Ford, who had finished second to C. H. Todd for the American Derby was second here also, a length behind Terra Cotta and two in front of Jim Gore, while behind the trio were Montrose, Cary, Wary, Safe Ban, Sailor Boy and Hard Times. The race was run in 2:10 and was worth $4,590 to the winner.

In 1888 the Sheridan, for the first time since its foundation, was carried off by the winner of the American Derby, the honor of being the first winner of the double event being "Lucky" Baldwin's mighty son of Norfolk-Marion, Emperor of Norfolk. It is doubtful if a better three-year-old ever trod an American race track than this grandson of Lexington, and it was merely an exercise gallop for him when he defeated Gallifet, Hamlet and Loveland for the Sheridan of his year. The race was run over a slow track in 2:17, and was of the net value of $5,340.

Some fine three-year-olds were out in 1889. That was what Sam Bryant still calls "Proctor Knott's year." Spokane had beaten Proctor Knott in the Kentucky Derby at Louisville and again in the American Derby at Washington Park, but Proctor turned the tables on his twice conqueror in the Sheridan. The track was muddy and this suited Proctor, and he only carried 115 pounds to Spokane's 125, which also suited, so Bryant's colt made the running all the way and won in a canter by two lengths with Spokane second and the good filly Retrieve third. The other starters were Once Again, Heron, Beth Broeck and Glockner. Proctor Knott was a fine race horse with the distinction of having won the initial Futurity, but Spokane was his superior, 2:12 was the time recorded and the winner captured $5,350.

The American Derby of 1890 was contested by the worst field that ever started for it, and the best horse in it was beaten when Santiago finished second to Uncle Bob. In the Sheridan he easily beat Uncle Bob, Ben Kingsbury, Blarneystone Jr. and Ja Ja, and by his subsequent career amply demonstrated that he should have landed another American Derby for Mr. Baldwin. The track was slow, the time 2:12, and the value $4,840. The next year saw Eas in & Larabie's fine son of Longfellow, Poet Scout, an easy winner from Pomfret, San Joaquin, Kingman and Yale '91. The two latter were good race horses, but Pomfret and San Joaquin did not afterward amount to much. The track was slow, time 2:14, and the first money, $4,700. The track was extremely heavy in 1892, so much so that it took the winner, Newton, 2:32, to negotiate the mile and a quarter route. It was a poor field that started that year, only Newton, Cicero, Zaldivar and Emperor Regent going to the post. Newton, a fast, but unreliable horse, held the others safe throughout and won by a length and a half, with Cicero second and Zaldivar third. Cicero was afterwards a famous steeplechaser.

A fine field contended for Sheridan honors in 1893, the World's Fair year, with Clifford, a 3 to 5 favorite, Dare Vea and Decapod being next in favoritism. Third was the best Clifford could do and at the end of an inspiring race Col. Jack Chinn enjoyed the pleasure of seeing Ingomar dash past the judges an easy winner with Tyro second. The race in that high pressure year was worth $10,780, a circumstance that contributed materially to Colonel Jack's enjoyment of the outcome. It was run in 2:10 and the unplaced starters were Aldebaran, Dare Vela, Enthusiast, Miles Standish, Decapod and Ko Ko.

In 1894 that excellent but somewhat eccentric horse, Rey El Santa Anita, equalled the record of Emperor of Norfolk by winning both the Judge Wofford ran his race. Campus showed speed for three-quarters. The mud was unfavorable to Twinkle Twink. Weller is not in good form.

Scratched—16852 B. Happy, 97.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Rio Chico was skillfully ridden and had good racing luck. Stromo stumbled at the start, losing perhaps three lengths and was best in all likelihood. Dog Town liked the going and outgamed Tom Calvert at the end. Snips showed some early speed.

Winner—Blk. m. by Britannic—Lady McNairy.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Powell, on Lady Britannic, avoided the early fast pace and came with a grand rush in the home stretch. Orion barely failed to land again. He liked the going and ran a good race. Captive was standing flat-footed at the start. Off well, he would have won. Monrovia tired in the last sixteenth. Gauntlet showed speed, but not up to his best form. Sister Alice did well for three furlongs then tired.
Lady Britannic, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Orion, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Captive, show, evens. Monrovia, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Gauntlet, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Morello—Helen Scratch.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next five were driving hard. Imperious took it easy in second and third place until well in the homestretch and then drew away with amazing speed. Rosinante came from eleventh place at the half post under a good ride although the going was not to her liking. Formero had a stormy journey. He was carried out on the first turn but after that improved his position immensely and finished strongly. Constelator came from far back. Arbace did well for a mile. Pat Morrissey appeared sure to be the winner up to the final furlong. Dr. Sheppard ran out. Topmast was going fast at the end.

THE SHERIDAN STAKES.

American Derby and Sheridan Stakes in decisive fashion. He carried his 127 pounds gallantly, and won by a length from Prince Carl,
with Peytonia third and Selika and Despot un-placed. He cut the record of the event down to 2:08 1/2 and won $10,400 for his owner. That year
the curtain fell on racing at Washington Park, and it was not raised until 1898. How Bannockburn, the only horse that has ever twice ran a mile in 1:39, came out that year fit to run for a kingdom and easily defeated the American Derby winner, Pink Coat, as also Goodrich, Pingree and Sardonie, is yet fresh in the memory of local patrons of the track. It was a grand race and done in such time as 2:06 1/2. It only netted the winner $1,930, a sad falling off from the years of Ingomar and Rey El Santa Anita. In that respect an improvement can be confidently anticipated, however,
if all goes well with Washington Park racing hereafter.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1900 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1899; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1899 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1899.
Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards, together with scores of all the important matches and tournaments of 1899.
